

GNOTHI SEAUTON

Matter flows in a movement of mind
In an endless free motion of waves
I'm only a spark of a feeble kind enchained in the fate of all ultimate graves
In God's eyes men are all equal indeed
But some Gods are more equal than others
Many desperate souls are in current need
But who cares for their suffering, who bothers
Look at the letters above the door at Delphi
We are all flows in the movement of mind
Know thyself- Gnothi Seauton, please see!
Let's all share, and lover... be kind.
