

CREATIVITY

Exceptional is the coolness of the air
Attainment of liberation seldom and rare
It's all open at the very first glance
The sacred intensity of true innocence
The screaming voice of determination
A seed from scratch in subtle variation
For every creative act there is a cause
What a cosmic bouquet of energetic force
Untouched from any glory that tries to delude
The child is born and the child is nude.
