

Embers of the Spirit

How like a flame the spirit is
Burning with savage brightness
Overcoming all obstacles in its path
On a quest, this journey though life.

Experience and perception ever the teachers
Writing upon the slate of a mind that can't forget
Shaping, forming, indeed culturing; what a person becomes.
Laying a foundation which all else relies upon.

I have been told that all I have believed, and perceived
In my life, is incorrect, ghosts without substance.
As if confronted by a strong wind, the embers of the spirit
Flicker...

© Lea Wiggins