

Future-Life-Net: our cooperative physical paradigm

Although a belated proposition, I am now without question, one of the "luckiest" people on earth. I have changed human paradigms. Now, it seems a new world of friendship, intellectual sustenance, cooperation and hope, simply arrive at my door each day with all but no effort. It appears as if this is luck, but luck, is not luck! I am myself entirely certain, and have written copiously regarding the notion that: the change is not only psychological, for it is that, but also a matter of the interactivity of the new psychology, with entangled physics. There are others who seem to understand that the connectivity we all share is an extension of ontological and physical processes, and indeed, this revelation is not unique, it is common amongst those who think deeply:

"I do not believe in the possible future of mysticism in the old form. However, I do believe that the natural sciences will out of themselves bring forth a counterpole in their adherents, which connects to the old mystic elements." (Wolfgang Pauli)

In my view, the "spiritual" phenomena which are now so shrouded in mystery, may soon be defined and their hope made manifest. Mystery is ignorance, and the unknown, once revealed and understood, becomes both alluring and clear in a single glance, and we soon understand, that to understand, is not to insult, but instead, understanding is height, point, purpose and hope itself. Entangled nonlocal processes are at the basis of much universal and human "magic" which once understood, will yield both our place in this connected universe, and, a means to dramatically improve our situation, cure disease, and create a tangible reason and means for all to behave in a completely different way. War, competition and greed, are unnatural, foolish, and pathological. There is an alternative, and to disseminate this vital truth, I have gathered a new cooperative venture along with my friend Paolo Manzelli, so as to spread the idea far and wide: Future-Life-Net.

This vision is shared by others, many more adept than myself. Please see the partial list of participants below, and consider the possibilities. If we pool our minds and hearts, rather than compete in greed, anything is possible. It is in caring, not competition, that life and humanity may yet flourish. It is in cooperation that technology may serve to better our state, rather than make more money for the rich, and create as many problems as it solves, while putting money in the pocket of a vile corporation or the over-stuffed wallet of the bloated and rich. Those who earn, should be rewarded, and so, we may all cooperate and earn our place at a table overflowing with riches. To covet in greed, is to become worthless. Let us discover our future value is in unity, not competitive division.

If you possess scientific acumen, or understand how to finance science which could help nearly every human living on this planet...please consider joining the venture. Research and labs are waiting. Please read below to see the caliber of the participants. Can you see the future? If so, please consider lending a hand, and together, we may yet see the broken race of man, rise from his back, now sprawled in the mud of his competition and greed, so he may for the first time—at last begin: to stand.

Partial list of participants in Future-Life-Net:

Rich Norman, is the founder, and editor in chief of Mind Magazine and The Black Watch: The Journal of Unconscious Psychology and Self-Psychoanalysis. He heads a think tank of iconoclastic thinkers: The Universal Intelligence Network: Think Net. A writer, newspaper columnist and musician with degrees in philosophy and music, he is the author of books and scientific papers, spanning philosophy, psychology, neuroscience, verse and fiction. Rich Norman is a weekly contributor to BlogIQ, a blog serving the gifted community, and a regular contributor to the Prometheus Society journal: Gift of Fire. Paolo Manzelli, is a physicist, quantum chemist and founder/director of LRE/EGOCREANET—University of Florence. A deeply progressive and original thinker whose ideas are inspiring and correct, his vision is rare and creative. The future may well listen closely to this man, and be the better for it.

Peggi Wolfe, stem cell researcher turned fractal artist, is the art director for Mind Magazine www.mindmagazine.net, and Future-Life-Net. Her work has been featured in countless exhibitions including prominent display on one of the largest cinematic devices known: the billboard in Times Square, New York City. This organization is indebted to her for more than it is comfortable to admit. Please enjoy her work in Mind Magazine, and at the following address: <http://wolfepaw.deviantart.com/gallery/>

Dr. Arvydas Tamulis, is the leading expert in Quantum Prebiotic Evolution, a master of chemical and biological quantum mathematical modeling and Independent Expert for the European Commission, Brussels, whose insights probe into the very beginnings of life. Topics to which this scientist has contributed include (list abbreviated): Quantum Mechanical Modeling of Programmable Artificial Living Cells and Nanobiorobots Based on Organometallic Photosensitizers, Prebiotic Chemistry and Early Evolution, Quantum Modeling of Molecular Materials, Quantum Computation Using Self-Assembled Molecular Spin Arrays, and Quantum Entangled Single BioOrganic Supramolecules as Light Absorbing and Light Emitting Logical Devices. Renate C.-Z. Quehenberger, is a scientific researcher working in digital arts, based in Vienna (A) investigating higher dimensional space. Currently she is working on her thesis in philosophy, "On the Hermeneutics of the Penrose Pattern," and editing a book about her interdisciplinary visualization project Quantum Cinema - a digital vision, funded by the Austrian Science Fund, FWF (2010 - 2013).

Finding: the 3D representation of the Penrose Kites and Darts Tilings, which can be assigned as Plato's 5th element.

Dr. Akuma Saningong: "The notion that science and spirituality are somehow mutually exclusive does a disservice to both. Science is not only compatible with spirituality but it is a source of spirituality. The energy in the universe is provably loving kindness."

Daniela Biganzoli, lives and works in Milan, as a painter and designer. Daniela uses art to bring together scientific and spiritual concepts into a holistic vision which addresses the mysterious aspects of reality not yet fully understood through modern Science. There is an invisible immaterial reality where we can not know the objects, but only their relationships; a reality where all things and all events are interconnected. Dorian Aur: I began my education in electrical engineering, followed by training in automatic systems, specialized in artificial intelligence and control systems. I've taught different courses in artificial intelligence, computer controlled systems and software engineering. I returned to brain studies as a fellow in computational neuroscience at Western Ontario University then at Barrow Neurological Institute and at Stanford University. Using my previous expertise in signal processing, machine learning and dynamic systems, I've put together several new techniques to analyze biological neurons and brain rhythms and found a different, more powerful model of computation than previously envisioned by many scientists (see neuroelectrodynamics).

"We are not only built from 'stardust,' we evolve and die as any star in the universe, and our brain follows similar principles to function."

Giuseppe Monti: Business Associate IMC Rome Area, Italy Management Consulting Consolidated experience (48 years) in Management Training, planning and implementing ISO 9000, 14000 and SA 8000, Marketing Plan, Internationalization, Business Plan, Balanced Scorecard, 5S, Business Continuity Management, Lean Organization, Logistic, energy saving with clients of Small, Medium and Great companies.

Specialization: Balanced Scorecard, management education, strategic management, organization, quality, environment, marketing, business plan, internationalization, business continuity management energy saving.
